What were the most positive aspects of this production for your child?

What didn't work as well for your child?

How did you feel about the professional staff that worked with ACT this summer (directors, choreographer, musical director, stage manager)?

What committee(s) did you work on? How did you feel about your volunteer experience? What could be improved? What should stay the same?

How effective was ACT communication for you and your family this summer (e-mail, Yahoo group notices, sandwich board, mailings, phone calls)?

Were the administrative details (e.g., schedules, committee notices, costume details, etc.) clear and communicated and explained well to you?

Overall, what would you like to see changed for our next production? What would you keep the same?

Would you consider being in an ACT production again? Why or why not?

What is your view of ACT as an organization?

Would you be interested in joining the board?
